Haitong International Asset Management (HK) Limited (the “Manager”) accepts full responsibility for the accuracy of the information contained in this notice and confirms, having made all reasonable enquiries, that to the best of its knowledge and belief there are no other facts the omission of which would make any statement misleading.

Capitalized terms used herein not otherwise defined have the meaning ascribed to those terms in the Fund’s Explanatory Memorandum dated February 2019 (the “Explanatory Memorandum”).

Dated: 8 February 2019

Dear Investors

Haitong RMB Investment Fund Series (the “Fund”)
- Haitong China RMB Income Fund (the “Sub-Fund”)

Thank you for your continued support and participation in the Fund and the Sub-Fund.

We, as the Manager of the Fund and the Sub-Fund, are writing to inform you of the following changes to the Sub-Fund.

1. Change in PRC Tax Provisioning Policy of the Sub-Fund in relation to interest income from investment in onshore debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprises

Previously, the Manager has made provisions for interest income from non-government bonds at a rate of 10% for PRC withholding income tax (“WIT”) and a rate of 6.72% for PRC value added tax (“VAT”) and local surcharges.

In November 2018, the Ministry of Finance and the State Administration of Taxation jointly issued Caishui [2018] No. 108 (“Circular 108”) which provides that foreign institutional investors are temporarily exempted from PRC enterprise income tax and VAT in respect of bond interest income received from 7 November 2018 to 6 November 2021 from investments in the PRC onshore bond market. Such exemption does not apply to interest income derived by a permanent establishment of the foreign institutional investors in the PRC. Offshore bonds issued by PRC tax resident enterprises are not covered by Circular 108.

On 7 December 2018, the Manager, having consulted with the professional tax adviser, decided not to make any provisions for WIT and VAT on interest income from the Sub-Fund’s investments in PRC onshore bonds received for the period from 7 November 2018 to 6 November 2021.

There is still lack of clear guidance in respect of the WIT and VAT applicable to interest income derived by the Sub-Fund from PRC onshore debt securities, in particular, whether interest income received before 7 November 2018 is subject to WIT and VAT. Therefore, the Manager will retain the WIT and VAT provision in respect of interest received from investments in PRC onshore non-government bonds before 7 November 2018, until new developments and interpretation of the relevant regulations are available.

It is also uncertain whether the 3-year exemption under Circular 108 will continue to be available after 6 November 2021.

2. Reversal of Tax Provision and Impact on Net Asset Value

Accordingly, the Manager has decided to reverse the tax provisions in respect of the WIT and VAT on the interest income from the Sub-Fund’s investments in PRC onshore non-government bonds for the period from 7 November 2018 to 6 December 2018 (the “Relevant Tax Provisions”). The Relevant Tax Provisions were reversed and applied to the Sub-Fund on 7 December 2018 as follows:

Sub-Fund	The amount of reversal	The positive impact on the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund as at 7 December 2018
Haitong China RMB Income Fund	CNY 584,648.29	0.2794%

Investors who have already redeemed their Units in the Sub-Fund before the reversal of tax provision is applied to the Sub-Fund will not be entitled to claim in whatsoever form any part of the reversed tax provision.

BOCI-Prudential Trustee Limited, the Trustee of the Sub-Fund has been notified and has no objection to the reversal of tax provision as described above.

3. PRC Tax Risks

There is a possibility that the current tax laws, rules, regulations and practice in the PRC and/or the current interpretation or understanding thereof may be changed with retrospective effect in the future and any such change may have an adverse effect on the net asset value of the Sub-Fund. Moreover, such changes may impact the tax provisioning policy and tax position of the Sub-Fund. Any shortfall between the provision and the actual tax liabilities, which will be debited from the Sub-Fund's assets could have a material adverse impact on the net asset value of the Sub-Fund, thereby causing significant losses to investors. The actual tax liabilities may also be lower than the tax provision made. Investors may be advantaged or disadvantaged depending upon the final tax outcome as and when they subscribed and/or redeemed the Units of the Sub-Fund. Investors should note that no Unitholders who have redeemed their Units in the Sub-Funds before the release (if any) of any excess tax provision shall be entitled to claim in whatsoever form any part of the tax provision or withholding amounts released to the Sub-Funds, which amount will be reflected in the value of Units in the Sub-Fund.

The Manager may, upon taking professional tax advice, at its discretion, arrange with the Trustee to change the tax provisions in regard to potential PRC tax liabilities in respect of the Sub-Fund's investments in the PRC based on new developments and interpretation of the relevant regulations from time to time, for the purpose of meeting the Sub-Fund's tax liabilities in respect of or arising out of any PRC taxes, charges and duties.

Investors should seek their own tax advice on their tax position with regard to their investment in the Sub-Fund.
